

Web-Application Developer

We are ...

SAPP Management AG, a Klagenfurt-based company, is an international partner of the pulp and paper industry for mill development, boiler and turbine evaluation and with a special focus on quality management. We speak the language of technicians as well as of financial managers, we offer technical and commercial consultancy to facilitate our customers in making their decisions regarding mill development strategies, investments and for process optimization. As part of project management, we offer well qualified project manager as well as quality manger to ensure successful completion of our customer's project.

To strengthen our development team we are looking for a

Web-Application Developer / Full-Stack (m/f)

For this position, you will be responsible for planning and implementation of analytic solutions for projects of our customers and you are also liable for creative product development of business applications in cooperation with different departments.

We expect from you

- Understand process patterns, building digital models to address goal oriented and scenario sensitive solutions for business problems in pulp & paper industry
- Identify valuable data information by using analytic models, including software solutions
- Develop and maintain scalable and efficient front-end and back-end code
- Work closely with our R&D, process and financial engineering team to build products and features from scratch to completion

Your qualifications

In order to meet future challenges, we are looking for a highly motivated and well qualified employee.

- Strong understanding of web fundamentals like JavaScript, HTML5, CSS and server side scripting
- Hands-on expertise with .NET framework, C#, ASP.NET, MVC, Angular 6, PL-SQL
- Experience in components at each layer of modern web applications like REST API, SignalR and real-time streaming analytic services
- Experience with cloud based analytic tool like AZURE, AWS or similar of advantage
- Experience in data science of advantage
- A structured and analytical approach with ability to work independently in a team with minimal supervision

What you can expect from us

You can expect an international business environment with high standards, openness, appreciation and vision. We offer targeted training programs for personal and professional development to ensure the employee expertise and our continuous competitiveness.

You can expect a demanding, diversified job with high responsibility and independence in a dynamic team. A gross annual salary on a full-time basis, with the minimum desired qualification, is € 40,000.00. Furthermore, we offer the possibility of overpayment depending on previous experience and qualification. Additionally, we offer participation in our attractive "performance and corporate success oriented" bonus system.

According to the equal treatment law, we consider applications of all genders equally.

If you are interested in this position, please send your application with all documents and certificates via e-mail to our HR department latest until 15th of March 2019 at the latest. We are looking forward to meeting you!

SAPP Management AG, Personalabteilung, Karfreitstraße 11, 9020 Klagenfurt am Wörthersee, E-Mail: Bewerbung@sapp.co.at